LO: I can say who Steven Brown is and give my own opinion about his work.

Scottish Artist – Steven Brown

Steven Brown was born in 1972 in Kilmarnock, Ayrshire and now lives in Irvine.

Steven loved art at school and was very good at it; however, this did not become his career until much later in his life.

Steven carried on sketching as a hobby after leaving school and then, more recently, he started painting again. He shared his work on social media and at this point his paintings became more and more popular around the world.
